

Hillside Welcomes Therapy Dogs

Pictured are residents Mildred Buettner and Hazel Burghardt. Mildred is petting "Lucy", Lucy's owner is Mandy Robb. It's always nice to see how the residents react when they see the therapy dogs, they smile and their eyes just sparkle.

Hillside Rehab residents enjoy when the Fox Valley therapy dogs and their owners come to visit at Hillside. They come to visit the residents two times a month and the residents just love petting and talking to the dogs.
